2. The DCI reported at the Morning Meeting on his Mid East trip. During his audience with the Shah, he suggested that the Shah look upon CIA as his "library."

3. OSR is looking into the PQR and SALT reports to see if they can be combined into one periodic report.

4. Mr. Carver plans to ask Secretary Schlesinger if there is anything he needs by way of intelligence to support a policy of limited options.

5. The Director has asked that speakers addressing OTR courses avoid mentioning total Agency personnel and budget figures.

6. Mr. Duckett mentioned at the DCI Morning Meeting a briefing he had had from NPIC on Soviet camouflage, concealment, and deception. Mr. Colby wondered if a memo could be done on this subject in time for Secretary Kissinger's trip. OSR is looking into the matter.

7. Mr. Colby will be issuing a paper soon on outlining his views on the KIQ process.
